

'Ahaui Koa Anuenue Courtside Seating Policy

University of Hawaii at Manoa, Stan Sheriff Center

Owners of Courtside seats accept full responsibility for anyone who uses their ticket, including compliance with all related policies.

Courtside seat holders understand and accept the inherent risk associated with sitting in close proximity to a basketball/volleyball game. These include, but are not limited to, unexpected contact with balls and other equipment/objects, players, fans, officials or others working the event.

Courtside seat occupants voluntarily assume all risks incident to a basketball/volleyball game, including the risk of personal injury in respect to oneself and, if applicable, to others in one's care.

Children under 8 years old may not sit in the courtside area, whether in their own seat or on a seat holder's lap.

If you wish to be relocated, or if at any time assistance is needed in the Stan Sheriff Center, please contact the nearest event staff member.

No items, including but not limited to bags, coats, beverage or food cartons, shall be placed on or near the floor of the court.

The University of Hawaii/Stan Sheriff Center reserves the right to eject or refuse entry to the holder for violation of venue rules, illegal activity, misconduct or failure to comply with any and all security measures.
