Record-breaking... history-making... unforgettable... 'Bows in the Pros!... You name it, 2021-22 had it all! In July, when all the players started arriving to campus, we all knew we had the pieces but weren't sure if it would come together to make a magical season. From clinching the Big West Championship on our home floor on senior night to winning the Big West Tournament in Henderson, Nevada, in a venue that had never hosted an event before, the stars aligned for this team. Topping off the record books was Amy Atwell's incredible season of breaking multiple shooting records, being named the conference Player Of The Year and being drafted into the WNBA. What made this season all the more special was seeing the joy it brought all of you. We felt your happiness, your hearts and your Aloha throughout it all. Winning for you -- our fans, our state -- made this a truly unforgettable season and we thank you for being a part of our journey. As we look towards next year we won't make any predictions other than we know you will be along for the ride and you will once again be our why!! Mahalo Nūi,
